LAMARO'S RESTAURANT AND BAR MELBOURNE

“A rich tapestry of textures, colours and lighting effects produce dramatic interiors with a strong theatrical character.”

Lamaro's occupies an enviable position opposite Howe Crescent Park in Melbourne's leafy inner suburb of South Melbourne. From a very rundown and claustrophobic interior the brief was to transform the Bayview Hotel into a preeminent and up-market Gastro-pub with sufficient quality in its offer to attract the local business community and private patrons who were looking for more than the typical clinical fitout that pervades inner city venues.

The resulting interiors are a rich tapestry of spaces and finishes offering a 80 seat restaurant, conservatory, wine rooms, cocktail bar with executive-let apartments above.

The 1930's façade has been sensitively renovated to heritage requirements and marks the perfect frame for the sympathetic interiors beyond.

THE BOTANICAL HOTEL MELBOURNE

“OUR DESIGN ETHOS WAS TO REINTERPRET THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE DIFFERENT SPACES AND CREATE A TIMELESS INTERIOR DESIGN THAT WAS NEITHER FUNKY NOR TOO FASHIONABLE”

2. ENTRANCE TO PRIVATE DINING AND WINE DISPLAY
3. ARCHER ROOM

The reinvention of an iconic South Yarra venue.

The overriding aim has been to create a standout all day dining venue with some serious pub credentials so that the primary focus is a top quality and inventive dining experience within a pub.

The whole building has been opened up so from the front door there is a clear line of site through to the rear fireplace and conservatory area. The aesthetic is a simple but rich palette of finishes with consistency between areas. Dark timbers, are offset by black steel, pressed glass light fittings and pale walls. Warm leather and richer tones create intimacy in the dining room, whilst the Archer room is lighter and brighter with an outdoor feel. The rear main bar is robust but with strong detail and opens onto a bright terrace area in monochromatic tones. The dark oak floor unifies all areas.

As part of the Crown refurbishment program at the West End, this Chinese restaurant uses reminiscent images and forms that set the chinoise theme in the context of a contemporary palette of finishes and fittings.

SOFITEL HOTEL LEVEL 35, ATRIUM BAR MELBOURNE

The brief for the level 35 Atrium Bar was to transform an underperforming bar into a key destination space with its own character within the umbrella of the Sofitel brand.

Rich tones combined with highly decorative nickel screens and light fittings provide an environment that has a strong theatrical feel especially at night.

The new iconic bar constructed in zinc and matching grey marble with classical over scale forms as the basis of the design, provide the primary focus. Lit ice wells and the back bar create the backdrop for a sophisticated drinking experience.

FASHION LOUNGE MELBOURNE

A contemporary refurbishment of an existing 'Flinders Lane Bar'. Built over two levels, the brief called for a range of spaces to suit a sophisticated but diverse crowd. Private spaces, separate chill out zones and outdoor areas compliment the striking upstairs bar and dance floor on the lower level.

Yu Restaurant offers the discerning diner a varied and rich dining experience in a contemporary interpretation of Asia. The brief for Yu Restaurant, at Perth Burswood Casino, was to simply make it the best Chinese restaurant in Perth.

From its symbolic moon gate entry over the black granite river littered with polished gold coins, to the private rooms catering for the high rollers, the restaurant offers diners an experiential journey of strong Asian influenced design within a contemporary framework.

“THE CLOSEST PERTH HAS
TO A GENUINE LONDON CLUB”

SCOOP MAGAZINE, AUGUST 2007

Transforming the existing high roller suites into a hip new cocktail bar proved to be more like the refurbishment of a historic home than a complete renovation. The solid timber panelling and rich detail of the existing salons provided the perfect backdrop to the inclusion of cocktail bars, rich fabrics, quirky fittings and private Karaoke rooms. The resulting darkly theatrical, slightly Gothic interior has proved to be an instant success with Perth's party set.

ALURE RESTAURANT

BURSWOOD ENTERTAINMENT COMPLEX PERTH

Alure is a high end restaurant situated on the garden terrace of Burswood Entertainment Complex in Perth. The brief was to provide a high quality design using mainly natural and light colours and materials through out the main dining floor while creating warmer and more luxurious spaces at both ends of the restaurant in the cocktail lounge and private dining room.

SEAGRASS RESTAURANT

SOUTHBANK, MELBOURNE

“CLEAN, CLEAR AND
PERFECTLY MATCHING
THE FOOD ”

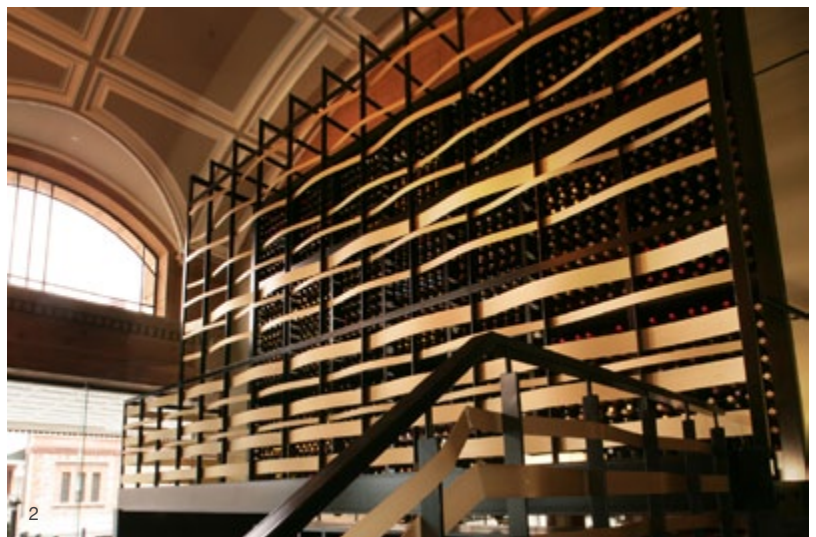

Located in the Southbank restaurant precinct, Seagrass is a restaurant based on sustainable principles for its food and beverage offer. The fitout reflects these notions without compromising on the necessary style and point of difference that a restaurant of this calibre and location requires.

The Brief - Ground Floor

Create a destination restaurant in Adelaide's redeveloped casino that showcases South Australian food and wine.

The Solution

A contemporary fitout, sympathetic to the room's heritage features, including iconic design elements like a 6 metre wine wall focal point.

The Brief - Mezzanine

Create an intimate, contemporary private dining area for 50 people, optimising the existing heritage character.

The Solution

Warm contemporary colours, finishes and fittings contrast with the original barrel vaulted ceiling painted in neutral colours to accentuate its dramatic form.

LOCO BAR
SKY CITY
ADELAIDE

The Brief for the Loco Bar at Adelaide's Skycity Casino was to create a hip, contemporary bar incorporating existing heritage features. This was achieved using strong colours and forms, dramatic lighting effects and modern materials to create a contemporary bar and seating area that both transform and maintain the original heritage character of the space.

MATCH BAR MELBOURNE

- 1. OUTDOOR TERRACE
- 2. LOUNGE
- 3. DINING

The design of this bar for the highly successful London based Match Bar consortium called for an urbane, sophisticated approach for the young professional crowd. A combination of eclectic furniture and custom fittings mixed with funky street art is complemented by recycled wood to produce an atmosphere that is stylish and warm without being pretentious. The outdoor terrace provides intimate booth seating and views to Melbourne's heritage listed State Library.
